MASON RADIO PRESENTS CONYA DOSS LIVE IN CONCERT

DETROIT, MI, March 10, 2008: Mason Radio is presenting internationally acclaimed soul songstress Conya Doss live in concert. She introduces her new album "Still" to the Detroit market. Conya has performed in Detroit several times to packed houses and rave reviews. Her next Detroit show, Friday, March 28, 2008 at Pure Nightclub is highly anticipated based on the street buzz. The new album is a rich blend of soul and jazz delivered in her familiar classy style.

Opening for Conya is Darnell Kendricks, a multitalented producer, vocalist and songwriter best known for his popular album "Strawberry Lemonade". Darnell plans to perform the electric and engaging show his fans have come to expect while offering some samples of his upcoming album "Smooth Soul". Superstar comedian Mike Bonner is sure to keep the audience in stitches with his animated humor as he hosts this event. DJ Vernon English is spinning soul and rare grooves.

Detroit radio legend John Mason chose to partner on this project as the presenter with his radio show Mason Radio. Mason plans to launch the morning program into national syndication later this year. In addition to quenching your thirst for live soul music, this concert supports Homes for Black Children, a United Way agency dedicated to providing permanency for children in need and protecting youth at risk. Event promoters wanted to adopt a worthy cause—party with a purpose.

Event promoters designed this event for adults 30 years old and older. "We wanted to give the grown folks a night spot" said event coordinator Mark Morden. "Adults want quality live music, in a comfortable environment, at an affordable price" says Morden. Advance tickets are only $17.00; $37.00 for VIP which include hot food from Heavenly Chicken and Waffles in the private balcony. Tickets are available online at www.neptix.com or at local tickets outlets throughout Metro-Detroit.
